

Cavilon Advanced skin protectant

Guidance for when to use

- The patient has a faecal management system in place
- The patient should have a faecal management system but is unable to have or tolerate one
- The patient has frequent episodes of liquid faeces/diarrhoea

Use outside pre-authorised areas must be approved by Tissue Viability or other appropriate specialist

Other areas of use include the following that have not responded to the products in the skin barrier guidance sheet after 6 weeks.

- skin damage around a fistula
- skin damage around a wound
- skin damage around a gastrostomy (or other peri-tube) site
- skin damage around a stoma
- moisture lesions/incontinence associated dermatitis
- Intertriginous dermatitis (in skin fold)